(Special to the Advertiser.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 28.—Many leading Hawaiians in California have been invited to a dinner to be given by Miss Abbie Campbell, at the Hotel St. James, San Jose, on New Year's day. Miss Campbell is the rich and beautiful daughter of the late James Campbell, the well known planter of Hawaii, and with her mother and sisters, is spending most of her time in San Jose. It is understood that the dinner is in honor of Miss Campbell's birthday.

Among those who will go will be Prince David, Samuel Parker, Judge Gear, George Davis, Mrs. Carmichael, Mrs. C. B. Holloway and many others. The cards for the dinner read as follows:

"Miss Campbell requests the pleasure of your company at dinner Wednesday, January 1, 1902, at 6:30 o'clock. Hotel St. James, San Jose."

Prince David gave a dinner the day after Christmas at the Palace Hotel grill to Samuel Parker, Judge Gear and George Davis. They were a merry four, and over their dishes and glasses talked about the people and politics of Hawaii. Prince David expects to return to Hawaii on January 4. He may have as a companion, Judge Gear. Geo. Davis, who intended to sail on the Sonoma which left here two days ago, has now made up his mind to go to Washington, where he will oppose Attorney General Dole, in the matter of the constitutional rights of certain prisoners in Honolulu. Sam Parker will accompany Davis, and maybe Gear will go also.

Parker confesses now that his telegram to Judge Gear, of four days ago, reading, "Kepoikai Third Judge," was premature, and that the third judge of the First Circuit Court of Hawaii has not yet been appointed. The contest lies between Robinson and Kepoikai. The Kepoikai campaign is being waged by Parker, who has told Washington people that Kepoikai is a native, and former judge under the monarchy, a staunch Republican, and an honest man. Robinson is termed a malihini, and it is represented that the island people would not like his appointment on account of his being so new to Hawaii.

Hawaiians will be interested in a swimming match which is to take place next week at the Lurline Baths here. The contestants will be J. C. Wilson, William Hopkins, Harry Smith and Edgar Mizner, all leading society men and members of the Bohemian Club. Mizner is a brother of Addison Mizner, the fat painter of Honolulu. The conditions of the match require that the contestants shall swim eight times across the tank. Edgar Mizner has a Yukon river record for long distance swimming, and Louis Sloss Jr. has made heavy bets that Mizner will leave the others puffing behind. The match is for a case of champagne, and intense interest is being taken in it by Bohemian clubmen and others.

Honolulu has been cheated of the society of a newly-married couple, who intended to make a honeymoon trip to the Islands. The pair are William G. Blatt, western manager for Pingree & Smith, the well known shoe firm of Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. Grace Wilson, a rich widow of Denver. Blatt is very well known here, and is a wealthy man. He came here about two weeks ago from Detroit, and has been living at the Palace Hotel. His fiancée had it

HAWAII'S GREAT PAPER IS DISCOVERED AT A DISTANCE

The Philadelphia Press prints the following with a straight face:

Mrs. Theresa Wilcox, wife of the Hawaiian delegate to Congress, Robert W. Wilcox, is the most progressive woman on the Sandwich Islands.

She has just started the first newspaper edited by a woman in that land.

Mrs. Wilcox belongs to the elite of Hawaiian society, not only because her husband is a delegate but on account of her own high rank.

She is known on the islands as Princess Theresa Owana Kaohelani, being a direct descendant of Keona, father of Kamehameha the Great.

Mrs. Wilcox, to use the more pronounceable title by which this enterprising woman is known, has won for herself new distinction by turning Lady of the Quill, and right skillfully does she handle this weapon which is said to be mightier than the sword.

The paper which she edits and which is now one of the leading sheets in Honolulu, is pronounced a decided success.

It is in the truest sense of the word a newspaper and gives absolutely no evidence of being run by a woman. There is no page devoted to fashions, questions and answers about correct social forms, articles on how to be beautiful, etc.; no, there is no woman's page, but there is an editorial page upon which appear editorials on the leading topics of the hour, where the political condition of the islands is discussed by men well known in the world of letters, politics, commerce, etc., for Mrs. Wilcox has on her staff some of the leading men of Hawaii.

Mrs. Wilcox is herself managing editor and upon her falls a good share of the actual work, as well as the responsibility of getting out a crisp, up-to-date newspaper.

The sheet is issued semi-weekly and is printed partly in English and partly in Hawaiian. Its announced purpose is to support the home rule party and the interests of the native Hawaiian.

It is, however, strictly a "peace" paper and refrains from any backbiting or mud-slinging, and, although it is first of all a political paper, there is not a more "newsy" paper issued than the one edited by Mrs. Wilcox. From a literary standpoint it far exceeds any paper published on the island.

The topics discussed are presented to the readers in an attractive way, there are no scare headlines, but Mrs. Wilcox prides herself on the originality of her headings and this originality shows itself in every article she handles.

She has an easy-flowing style, seldom uses hackneyed phrases, and has a very taking way of relating even the most commonplace happening.

Undoubtedly she possesses unusual literary ability and the true newspaper instinct. She has the two things which it is absolutely imperative for an editor to possess if he would be successful in alertness and a knowledge of what the reading public desires to know.

Mrs. Wilcox's paper will become, if it continues as it has commenced, the standard newspaper of the islands of both political parties; for although it boldly advocates home rule there are also columns devoted to the other side of the question.

Already the sheet has become known as a paper that can be depended upon—its readers feel perfectly confident of the truth of every article in it and it has received the nickname of "Reliable."

The circulation is large and Mrs. Wilcox states, is ever increasing.

It is paying, so says its editor, and when her plans and plant are perfected she will endeavor to make the paper a daily, instead of a semi-weekly.

Mrs. Wilcox is well known in this country, as she has traveled extensively over the States in company with her husband.

Her name is a familiar one in both social and official circles at Washington, D. C. The illustrious couple first came to reside in the capital when Mr. Wilcox was sent to Washington in 1899 by his countrymen to obtain unrestricted franchise for the Hawaiians in the framing of their organic law, then before Congress, and so successful was he in his efforts in behalf of his countrymen that in November, 1900, he was elected as first delegate of Hawaii to Congress.

Mrs. Wilcox, since her arrival in Washington, has become quite a social favorite, her ready wit and unmistakable culture gaining her many friends.

In her own country this clever woman is also a society leader and much respected by the people of the Sandwich Islands. She is an intimate friend of the deposed Queen Liliuokalani.

Mrs. Wilcox is the second wife of the famous Hawaiian delegate, whose life has been one of adventure for many years.

He led a body of native revolutionists in 1889, and was captured and imprisoned after a short conflict. He was court-martialed and sentenced to death, but the United States Congress intervened and the sentence was changed to thirty-five years' imprisonment at hard labor and $10,000 fine.

In January, '96, he was given a conditional pardon and in 1899 President Dole gave him full pardon approved by the Council of State.

While he was in prison in 1895 Pope Leo XIII granted to his wife an annulment of the marriage, as did also the civil court of Italy.

The Italian consul and Catholic bishop at Honolulu confirmed this news respectively, so in 1896 Mr. Wilcox was married to the Princess Theresa Owana Kaohelani.

There are two children by this second marriage and as their mother is of royal blood they are titled, respectively, Prince Robert Keoua and Princess Virginia Kaihikapumahana Kahoa Kaahumanu Nihito.

Mrs. Wilcox, since she has taken up the duties of an editor, has been obliged to forego many social pleasures, for she devotes her entire time to the making up of the paper which she is running so successfully.

Cheap Freights. (Special to the Advertiser.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 28.—Hawaii is to have steamer freights at nearly the same rate as sailing vessels charge. The steamship Hyades, which was recently chartered by the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company, expects to leave here about January 3d for Honolulu. The Hyades will take freight at a net rate of $3.50 a ton, which is $1.50 lower than that charged by the regular passenger steamships from here, and about the same asked by windjamers.

The Hyades has been chartered by the American-Hawaiian Company until the arrival of the Nevada and the Nebraska, two big steamships which are now being built in the East. The Hyades will give a regular monthly service and after the beginning of April, when the Nevada and the Nebraska arrive, there will be a bi-weekly service. The American-Hawaiian line will probably run to Hilo, when fully equipped.

REV. R. A. TORREY IN HONOLULU

He Will Make an Address at Y.
M. C. A. Hall This Morning.

Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Torrey of Chicago arrived here on the Coptic and it had been planned to keep them here for a series of meetings to be arranged at Central Union Church, but they feel called to hasten to Japan. Mr. Torrey will be at the Y. M. C. A. hall at 10:30 this morning to address a meeting to which the public is invited. This only opportunity should be seized by a large number of Christian workers. The Torreys plan to spend a month in Japan and another in China, arriving in Australia April 6th. It is on the invitation of the Evangelization Society of Australasia that tour is primarily undertaken, and so they will spend three months or more in Australia and New Zealand. Presumably, Mr. Torrey will hold Bible Institutes of three or four weeks' duration at several of the large centers of Australia. September will be spent in India, November in Palestine, and December in Great Britain, reaching Chicago by next New Year's day. A farewell meeting was held in the Moody church under the auspices of the church officers and the faculty of the Moody Bible Institute of which Mr. Torrey is superintendent. Some of his books most familiar to the Christian public are "How to Bring Men to Christ," "The Baptism With the Holy Spirit," "Ten Reasons Why I Believe the Bible is the Word of God," and "Vest Pocket Compilations for Christian Workers." There are very few if any men in our country more familiar with the Bible and with methods of Christian work. Mr. and Mrs. Torrey are the guests of the Athertons.

After the customary holiday vacation the educational classes of the Young Men's Christian Association begin the second term next week. New members may join classes in Hawaiian, English, arithmetic, bookkeeping, mechanical drawing, architectural drawing, stenography and typewriting. Young men who do not work evenings can here be fitting themselves for better positions.

"Some time ago my daughter caught a severe cold. She complained of pains in her chest and had a bad cough. I gave her Chamberlain's Cough Remedy according to directions, and in two days she was well and able to go to school. I have used this remedy in my family for the past seven years and have never known it to fail," says James Frensch, merchant, Annapolis Bay, Jamaica, West India Islands. The pains in the chest indicated an approaching attack of pneumonia, which in this instance was undoubtedly ward off by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It counteracts any tendency of a cold to develop into pneumonia. Sold by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents.
